

Do I need a letter from NMIT to give to my employer that states that I can work 'full-time' over scheduled vacations including summer vacation?

No, you should have this condition stated on your student visa label. It is not necessary for NMIT to provide you with a letter.