

How do I reset my password?

NMIT provides a self-service option enabling you to reset your own password from off campus anytime, even if you have forgotten it.

Reset your password here.

To use this service, you must first register a set of password security questions. We recommend you do this as soon as you have successfully logged in on a campus PC for the first time or activated your computer account on-line - and before you forget your password!