PURPOSE

- This procedure is applicable in cases of repeated and continuing non-achievement of academic standards or where a student is considered at risk of being unable to complete their course of study within the maximum period of enrolment.
- To treat students fairly should it be necessary to exclude a student from a specific course or programme of study, as a result of failure to meet academic standards.

SCOPE

Unsatisfactory academic progress can relate to:

- Poor performance in assessment(s)
- Inadequate class participation / engagement
- Non engagement in practical work
- Not meeting required competencies in practice placement
- Poor attendance
- Academic failure
- Not meeting criteria identified in the Programme Regulations such as co- and prerequisites
- Failure to meet criteria for professional behaviour, where this is a programme specific requirement (refer to Programme Regulations)

Academic performance issues can be identified by the student themselves or a member of curriculum staff.

Industry standards of character or professional behaviour as specified in external regulations (e.g. Civil Aviation Authority, Maritime NZ and Nursing Council New Zealand) take precedence over this procedure.

NOT IN SCOPE

In cases of student misconduct, refer to: Student Charter, Student Misconduct Procedure

For students failing to progress as a result of academic misconduct (eg. plagiarism, cheating) refer to Academic Integrity and Academic Misconduct Policy and Student Misconduct Procedure

- Student Counselling Service (OCP)
- Kaiāwhina Māori
- Student Advisor - Pasifika
- Student Advisors - International
- Equity Coordinator
- SANITI
- Student Advisor - Youth

The student will be made aware of the consequences of unsatisfactory academic progress.

The principles of natural justice are incorporated, whereby the student will be given all relevant information regarding the issue and sufficient notice for any meeting dates, an opportunity to prepare and present evidence, and to respond to the arguments provided. Time will also be given for the student to demonstrate improvement, and to implement the agreed actions if the Programme Regulations permit.

If the student does not engage in the process documented in the Unsatisfactory Academic Progress Procedure (e.g. has not been contactable, has not responded to requests to attend meetings, has not evidenced behaviour that convinces NMIT academic staff that there is genuine commitment to improve), NMIT reserves the right to recommend exclusion, notwithstanding the process requirements.
