

Knowledgebase > International students > Immigration New Zealand > My programme has finished and my visa expires in a month. How many hours can I work until my new visa arrives or until I go home?

---

My programme has finished and my visa expires in a month. How many hours can I work until my new visa arrives or until I go home?

Olly - 2022-10-10 - Immigration New Zealand

20 hours per week (depends on whether you have work rights on your visa label), alternatively you can check with Immigration New Zealand directly.