

Knowledgebase > Applying > How to apply > Providing supporting documents

Providing supporting documents

Olly Barrett - 2022-10-09 - How to apply

Some of our programmes require supporting documentation. These documents enable us to assess and finalise your enrolment. It is important to know that most delays in processing your enrolment are the result of incorrect or missing documentation.

There are three types of documents we may need to receive:

Proof of identity

The Government requires us to verify your identity if you are enrolling in a programme of study with us. We are required to validate your; full legal name, date of birth, gender and citizenship or residency status.

Learn more

International student document requirements

All international student applications are required to provide a certified copies of identity documents, academic transcripts and English language test results.

Learn more

Programme specific documents

In addition to the general documents listed above, some of our programmes have specific requirements that need to be provided along with your application.

Uploading documents

You can use MyNMIT to easily upload your documents. Simply sign in and go to the Applications page to locate the Manage application link. If you didn't apply online you can create a free account here.