

Knowledgebase > International students > Immigration New Zealand > Do I need a letter from NMIT to give to my employer that states that I can work 'full-time' over scheduled vacations including summer vacation?

Do I need a letter from NMIT to give to my employer that states that I can work 'full-time' over scheduled vacations including summer vacation?

Olly - 2022-10-10 - Immigration New Zealand

No, you should have this condition stated on your student visa label. It is not necessary for NMIT to provide you with a letter.

If your employer wishes to know the specific semester break dates, please refer them to Important Dates.