

Do I still need to supply Proof of Identity documents if I have studied with NMIT before?

Sarah Ryder - 2016-05-24 - How to apply

If you have studied with us within the past ten years and know your National Student Number, you probably won't need to supply Proof of Identity documents again, however there may be some exceptions. We will let you know if we require any additional information when you submit your application.

Related Content

- What does Verified mean in MyNMIT?