

Do you offer any scholarships for international students?

There are two scholarships available to international students who are already enrolled with us.

They are the Equity scholarship and the Nelson Marlborough Freemasons Charity scholarship.

These scholarships each have specific entry criteria, so make sure you check the terms of reference to see if you are eligible.

External Scholarships

There are also a number of external scholarships, grants and awards you can apply for. These are a great way of funding your tertiary education in New Zealand. Here are some links to get you started:
