

Knowledgebase > Current students > Student support > Health and Wellbeing > Does NMIT provide accessibility services for students who live with a recognised disability, impairment and/or learning differences eg Dyslexia?

Does NMIT provide accessibility services for students who live with a recognised disability, impairment and/or learning differences eg Dyslexia?

Rachel Rees - 2021-01-14 - Health and Wellbeing

Options available for current students with a recognised disability, impairment and/or learning difference eg Dyslexia may include:

- Learning and study support
- Reader/writers for tests and exams
- Specific equipment
- Assistive technologies
- Access to Counseling services

To discuss your individual requirements contact equity.support@nmit.ac.nz

Alternatively book an appointment with Equity Support at the Library Helpdesk located in the Library Learning Centre

- Nelson Campus - M Block
- Marlborough Campus - A Block