

How can I help my student with household timetables?

It is important to establish what times are important to you as a family and to tell your student what they are. Sit down with your student in the first few days and discuss your household routines such as eating times, when to take showers etc. Please be aware that some students go to bed very late and it may be difficult to change this habit quickly.

<!--