

How do I complain about a problem on the website?

If you are experiencing a technical issue with our website, Moodle or other issues within NMIT, please advise us by creating a support request and explain the problem and any other useful information.

A member of our website team will contact you as soon as possible.

<!--