

How late can I apply for a short course?

Ideally you need to submit your enrolment at least five working days prior to the course starting as some courses require you to complete some work before attending the first session. If you are unsure, please contact us for confirmation.

<!--