What to do when . . . there's a problem

Sharon Thomas - 2023-10-24 - Complaints

NMIT | Te Pūkenga has a suite of procedures and policies to guide problem resolution.

- 1. Academic Integrity policy detailing the academic expectations of students and what is not acceptable
- 2. Ākonga Appeals Procedure ensuring academic appeals from students are fairly heard and academic standards are maintained.
- 3. Akonga Concerns and Complaints Resolution Procedure providing procedural steps for responding to formal complaints by students about NMIT services, facilities, programmes, other students, or staff.
- Breach of Academic Integrity Procedure providing the NMIT community with the procedural steps to be taken when academic misconduct is suspected, and/or alleged, and/or proven
- 5. Harassment (Prevention and Management) providing guidance to resolve situations involving harassment
- 6. Student Misconduct Procedure providing explanations of what constitutes student misconduct, the consequences, and procedures for dealing with it.
- 7. Unsatisfactory Academic Progress Procedure providing procedural steps in cases of repeated and continuing non-achievement of academic standards or where a student is considered at risk of being unable to complete their course of study

Related Content

- How do I raise a concern or complaint?
- How can I provide feedback?