Research strategies: tips and techniques for finding information

Tania Norfolk - 2020-07-08 - Research and finding academic information

Access the full range of our NMIT Research Strategies tutorials - a range of short videos that take you through the process for starting research and finding information including:

- Clarifying your task
- Choosing a research topic
- Identifying search terms
- Source types and where to find them
- Google and reliability using CAARP
- Searching the NMIT Library collection
- Accessing ebooks at NMIT Library
- Databases - what they are, and why use one?
- Databases - intro to topic searching
- Databases - refining your search by applying limiters
- Databases - advanced search techniques