

What if I am sick?

Sarah Ryder - 2022-10-18 - Studying

International Students

Immigration New Zealand requires International Students to provide evidence of genuine reasons for absences. If you are sick and unable to come to classes, you will need to provide a medical certificate as evidence.

1. Make a doctor's appointment or call 0800 718 277 if you need urgent assistance from an NMIT Wellbeing Support Team member.
2. Email your tutor and international@nmit.ac.nz, with your student ID number and name, and your reason for not attending class.
3. Visit your doctor/dentist and ask for a medical certificate.
4. Email a copy of your medical certificate to your Programme Support Co-ordinator, your Tutor, and international@nmit.ac.nz.

if you require support with this process, or at any time, please contact wellbeing@nmit.ac.nz

Domestic Students

If you are unwell, it's important to contact your Tutor or Programme Support Co-ordinator to let them know you will be absent from class.

If your absence is prolonged or if you need to request an extension/s for due assignments, you may be asked to provide a medical certificate, to provide evidence of a genuine reason for absence.

if you require support with this process, or at any time, please contact wellbeing@nmit.ac.nz

Related Content

- What if I become pregnant?
- What if I have an accident?
- How do I make an appointment to see a doctor?
- Who can I talk to for help?