

What if I need help with my studies?

Do you need some help with your studies? Check out the Learning & Study Support page in Moodle under Student Help, or see below for our Learning Facilitator support information.

NMIT's Learning Facilitators are here to advise and assist with academic support. The team offers one-to-one training as well as a range of seminars or small group training sessions.

Are you struggling to adapt to the academic environment? If so, we will assist you in:

- Understanding your learning style
- Research skills / Library website databases
- Planning essays or assignments
- APA Referencing
- Writing skills
- Maths

Perhaps you need computer support? See us for:

- Computer software support
- Online resources / e-learning support

You can find Learner Services in the Library Learning Centre at Nelson campus and Marlborough campus. While there, book an appointment with the appropriate Learning Facilitator for your needs.

To book an appointment with a Learning Facilitator contact Learner Services:
