

What if I wish to change my homestay?

Sarah Ryder - 2017-03-16 - in Accommodation

Sometimes your first homestay placement can be difficult to get exactly right because we do not know you yet. Please be patient because everything will seem different at first.

If you wish to change your homestay, please talk to the NMIT cultural advisors who can assist with options and provide you with the necessary forms. Homestays require a minimum of two weeks notice and payment, even if you move out before that time.

We do our very best to get homestay placements right based on the information you give us.
