

What is covered in the short course fees?

All fees include a Student Services Levy component. This covers the use of student services such as advocacy and legal advice, careers information advice and guidance, employment opportunities, financial support and advice, pastoral care and counselling.

All international fees include insurance.

<!--