

Knowledgebase > Current students > Student support > Study and learning > What is the Library Learning Centre?

What is the Library Learning Centre?

Rachel Rees - 2018-04-12 - Study and learning

The Library Learning Centre is your hub for study, research, collaboration, networking, and advice.

Library Learning Centre (Nelson Campus)

The three level Library Learning Centre is our buzzing onsite learning hub. Downstairs you will find the Fishbowl Computer Café where you can access your online course material. With campus-wide free WIFI.

Café and Library (Marlborough Campus)

Take some important time out at our onsite café, or hit the books in our library - you'll find the right spaces to study and relax here on campus. You are also online with free campus-wide WIFI.

Related Content

- Where is the Learner Services centre located?
- Learner Services contact details
- How can the Learner Services Team help me?