

Knowledgebase > Current students > Student support > Study and learning > What support can offshore online students access?

What support can offshore online students access?

Sharon Patterson - 2020-09-16 - Study and learning

Offshore online students can access many of the support services provided by the Learner Services team and their collaborative partners.

Learner Services supports offshore online students to

- Manage stress, anxiousness or worries
- Manage deadlines and extensions
- Understand resubmit, reconsideration, special assessment processes
- Improve academic writing
- Use APA referencing
- Find library and database resources
- Use English as a second language
- Learn digital and computer skills
- Develop math and science skills
- Improve general study skills
- Prepare for assessments and tests
- Access independent support and advocacy

We can support students by Zoom, Skype, or email.

For further information contact the Learning or Wellbeing Support Teams: library@nmit.ac.nz

Request learning and wellbeing support through the Learner Services online Support Request Form

- Tags
- International students
- Student Support
- Study online
- Wellbeing